What we are about

No Strings Theatre aims to provide an opportunity for young people to be involved in musical theatre and develop their performance skills in all aspects of a stage production. This training and performance program welcomes youths, between the ages of 13-21, beginners to more advanced.

Our Program

- individual and group vocal & dance classes
- drama classes, scene study & character development
- production rehearsals
- performance masterclasses
- support with audition techniques, dealing with performance anxiety etc.
- technical work behind the scenes

Our Artistic and Music Director

Denise Williams is a professional singer, actress, and music educator. She has an international performance career encompassing the concert stage, opera stage, theatre stage, television, commercials and is currently in the cast of Mirvish's North American Premier of The Sound of Music at the Princes of Wales Theatre. Denise has founded No Strings Theatre with a desire to aid youth in developing their skills in music theatre as well as grow in their team skills for life. As a music educator, she has directed children and youth choirs for the Toronto District School Board, Royal St. George's College School, Suzuki and Thornhill Music Camps, and many other community organizations. She has also led several choral workshops for the Canadian Amateur Musicians (CAMMAC) and was an assistant director for The Royal Conservatory of Music's Repertory Chorus. Denise has been a private voice teacher for over 15 years and is a vocal examiner for the Royal Conservatory of Music.

Our Stage Director

Heather Dick is delighted to be returning to No Strings Theatre as Stage Director and Acting Instructor for the 2009 summer production. A highly respected and sought-after acting coach, she has been enthusiastically teaching classes and workshops for independent acting studios, community theatres and her own company, the SIRIUS THEATRICAL COMPANY, for more than 25 years. She is an artist

/ instructor in the TDSB and the TCDSB through the Learning Through The Arts (LTTA) program of the Royal Conservatory of Music, and an adjunct artist / instructor with the YCDSB where she co-teaches the Grade 10 Drama curriculum in alternative schools. Heather is also a working professional actress and director. She has acted in, directed and/or produced more than 70 shows across the country and appeared in film, television and commercials.

Our Choreographer

Victoria Slager is an enthusiastic participant in the Divine Dance of Life and has been sharing her love and passion for movement for over thirty years. She is a gifted choreographer, dancer and dance educator as well as a movement workshop facilitator. She has used her talents to choreograph numerous works for dance, music theatre, festivals, films, videos, choirs and fashion shows and has been commissioned to choreograph works for companies such as the Toronto Symphony, Hamilton Art Gallery, and the Canadian Children's Opera Chorus. She has taught and choreographed at The Etobicoke School of the Arts, Earl Haig Secondary School (Claude Watson Program), French Woods Performing Arts Camp, The National Music Camp, Te Amim Theatre Company and No Strings Theatre Company. She is presently on the faculty of teachers at Mayfield Secondary School in Brampton, where she is a dance educator in the Regional Arts Program.
